BOARD CORNER

Throughout the spring, summer, and fall months, I have been listening to a multitude of enthusiastic proposals from members about what the club can do to keep the fun going.

Most involve movement and interaction as opposed to sitting and listening. Most involve sharing food in an inviting atmosphere. All of them have one thing in common – a desire for us to connect with each other on a deeper and deeper level.

But November is the month when the cold and darkness start to threaten to diminish all that enthusiasm we have been feeling. Anne Morrow Lindbergh once said: “Perhaps I am a bear, or some hibernating animal underneath, for the instinct to be half asleep all winter is so strong in me.” Let’s all try not to give in to that urge to withdraw from the world, staying home by ourselves, watching television.

One of the most popular events in the past has been the “Intimate Fireside Dinners” at host member homes. Let’s plan one for a Saturday night in January. Our first step is to have several people volunteer their home for about ten guests. We can do this by e-mailing me at Psattar1@yahoo.com. As host, you will provide a main course for up to ten people. When we have enough hosts and the exact date in January, we can then have members sign up as guests. As a guest, your name and contact information will be given to your host and they will contact you directly with location, start time, and your food/beverage assignment.

Everyone loves these fireside dinners and what better time than on a cold January night.

TREE TRIMMING PARTY MARK YOUR CALENDAR: WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2

Plans for the Club's holiday Tree Trimming Party are underway. Winnie Walsh, Carolyn Moller and Richard Cardilli have shared their experience producing last year's party, so building on their suggestions, this year's event promises to be festive!

The Committee is hoping to offer hors d'oeuvres (provided by your Club), and Christmas music to get Club members in the holiday spirit, and it will be held at the picturesque Second Congregational Church (130 E. Putnam Ave.) in the lovely Fletcher Hall.

It is 1,000 feet West of Christ Church on the opposite side of the Post Road. (directions and details to come in the December Newsletter). So put December 2 on your calendar for sure!

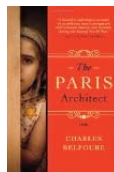

Some traditions are worth maintaining, so decorating several small Christmas trees for donation to clients of Neighbor to Neighbor, and bringing an unwrapped toy will still be part of the evening. In addition, ideas for party "contests" are being considered. It promises to be fun.

GC MEMBERSHIP is an investment of your time and dollars. Pay early and save. Participate and help us grow!

Let's think of our Club as a "cooperative farm". The Board sows the seeds; we add fertilizer by everyone lending a hand; raise a variety of "activities/crops"; reap what we sow and then have a "hootin'" good time for ourselves and sometimes help others in the process. Greenwich Club is your club and you will feel more a part of its direction by your participation in sharing ideas and also giving ONE hour of your time now and then. Why not chat with Phyllis at the next meeting and ask her where you can give a little of your time for the greater good.

So, what is it that we get for our investment anyway?

$ Greenwich Club has more diverse activities than most singles groups: Monday dinners, Wednesday meetings with lively discussions and guest speakers, movie night, book club, hiking, and special monthly events including dances, theatre, museum and site visits.

$ You receive well-designed, informative monthly newsletters highlighting the events of the month.

$ You receive frequent eblasts describing event info.

$ You have a website that summarizes who we are and references previous Newsletters if you want to look up information or direct a potential member to see what we are about. (www.greenwichclub.org)

$ You avoid guest fees.

$ You can attend all our "members only" events such as Fire-side Dinners.

$ You are encouraged to offer suggestions of activities that interest you and restaurants for us to try.

In other words, this becomes your club.

Dues are only $40 if you pay by January 1, '16. Otherwise $45. Renewal forms will be sent to you soon. So, let's all get out there and plow those fields, grow our involvement, share our time to strengthen our organization and harvest a bumper crop in 2016.
