BOARD CORNER

Good news: There is a slowing down of infections from the Omicron COVID virus. However, until it is more under control, the Greenwich Club Board advises that unvaccinated people, and those feeling unwell, continue to refrain from attending our indoor events. The health and well-being of our members is crucial as we gather to enjoy events together. We recognize the concern many members have about social distancing, and we try to plan our events to offer the greatest safety and the least discomfort.

Thanks to Katharine Kraig for coordinating the well-attended Chinese New Year dinner at Asiana and to Lew Clark and Gillian Hall for co-hosting the New Year's Day Open House. Thanks also to Carolyn Möller for organizing the Into the Woods musical event group and the Lugano happy hour. Winnie Walsh did her usual amazing job of decorating for our Valentine's Day social. Active members like them make our Club varied and enjoyable.

Welcome to Catherine (Kate) Buckley and Darby Callahan as new members on the Social Committee. We welcome members to join them as we plan future events and we look forward to suggestions about Wednesday programs and potential future field trips.

Membership Drive 2022 continues: A reminder from Membership Chair, Diane Caldwell, and our Treasurer, Peggy Pryor: We find that some membership dues remain unpaid. If you've not already rejoined for this year, please send your $45 to continue receiving notices and newsletters from Greenwich Club, and especially to participate in member-only events. Your dues enable us to keep up our activities and programs.
